LaDawn Nandrasy is the firm's Managing Partner. From the beginning of her career, which now spans almost 25 years, LaDawn has focused her practice on state and federal trial strategy and appeals involving complex business disputes. Her work on the State Bar Pattern Jury Charge Committee (Business, Consumer, and Employment volume)—a member from 2006 to 2018, serving three years as Chair—reflects her particular interest in unraveling complicated jury charge issues. LaDawn's experience, ingenuity, and attention to detail serve her well whether she is crafting proposed jury instructions and questions, handling a charge conference, or pursuing relief from jury charge error.

LaDawn regularly represents clients in a variety of industries, including banking, bankruptcy, environmental, healthcare, oil and gas, real estate, and travel. Her team-building philosophy is invaluable not only in her leadership of the firm, but also in her work with clients and trial lawyers at all stages of a case. In addition to her work on jury charge issues, she works hand-in-hand with trial lawyers on dispositive motions, expert challenges, and other matters that significantly impact the likelihood of success at trial and on appeal. She represents clients seeking mandamus and interlocutory relief and counsels trial lawyers on building a record to support post-judgment review. Her work has led her to argue cases in numerous intermediate appellate courts, as well as the Supreme Court of Texas.

LaDawn's commitment to excellence has not gone unnoticed. She has been listed in Texas Super Lawyers since its inception in 2003 and was listed as one of its "Top 50 Women in Texas" in 2011. She has been listed in Best Lawyers in America since 2013. D Magazine named her one of the Best Lawyers in Dallas (2010-2014, 2016-2017) and one of the Best Women Lawyers in Dallas (2010).

LaDawn has served in leadership roles for the State Bar of Texas Appellate Section as a Council Member, Chair of the Annual Meeting Committee, and Co-Chair of the Diversity Committee. Her engagement in the community has included membership on several non-profit boards, including Empowering Women as Leaders, and Hope Adoption, Inc. d/b/a Hope International, an international adoption agency that assisted with the adoption of her daughter from Russia.

LaDawn is Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the United States Courts of Appeals for the Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh and Federal Circuits, and all Texas state courts.
